MSA 17: MODERNISM AND REVOLUTION BOSTON - NOVEMBER 19-22, 2015

SPECIAL EVENTS

PLENARY SESSIONS

PLENARY SESSION I: Keynote Speaker Anne A. Cheng

Thursday, November 19, 5:15-6:45 p.m.
Essex Ballroom

“Ornamentation, Aesthetic Being: Revolution at the Periphery”

Anne Anlin Cheng, Professor of English and African American Studies at Princeton University, specializes in race studies, aesthetic theory, film, psychoanalytic approaches, and Asian American and African American literatures. She is the author of The Melancholy of Race: Assimilation, Psychoanalysis, and Hidden Grief (2001), and Second Skin: Josephine Baker and the Modern Surface (2013), which was awarded Honorable Mention by the Modernist Studies Association for their annual Book Prize. She is currently working on two projects: one on Race Studies at the intersection of Food and Animal Studies; the other on the politics behind “ornament” as an aesthetic and philosophic discourse in the early 20th century.

PLENARY SESSION II: KEYNOTE ROUNDTABLE ON “MODERNISM AND REVOLUTION”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1:30-3:00 PM
ESSEX BALLROOM

Roundtable Panelists: Heather K. Love, Janet Lyon, and Tavia Nyong'o
Moderator: Carrie J. Preston

Heather K. Love is the author of Feeling Backward: Loss and the Politics of Queer History (Harvard, 2007), the editor of a special issue of GLQ on the scholarship and legacy of Gayle Rubin (“Rethinking Sex”), and the co-editor of a special issue of New Literary History (“Is There Life after Identity Politics?”). A book of her essays and lectures called Queer Affect Politics: Selected Essays by Heather Love was published recently in Taiwan (ShenLou Press, 2012). Her research interests include gender studies and queer theory, the literature and culture of modernity, affect studies, film and visual culture, psychoanalysis, race and ethnicity, sociology and literature, and disability studies.

Janet Lyon is an associate professor of English and an affiliate of the Women and Gender Studies department at Penn State University. She is co-editor of the Journal of Modern Literature. Her scholarship focuses mainly on modernism and its historical, sociological, and philosophical contexts in Ireland, Great Britain, and the global reaches of the British empire. Her first book, Manifestoes: Provocations of the Modern (Cornell, 1999), offers a history and a theory of the manifesto form, beginning in 1640 and focusing on its use by modernist and avant-garde groups. She is completing a book titled The Perfect Hostess: Sociability and Modernism, which studies the salons, at-homes, wild parties, pub crawls, and tea-house poetry groups in the modernist moment.

Tavia Nyong'o teaches critical black studies, queer studies, cultural theory, and cultural history at NYU. His first book, The Amalgamation Waltz: Race, Performance, and the Ruses of Memory (Minnesota, 2009), won the Errol Hill Award for best book in African American theatre and performance studies. Nyong'o has published articles on punk, disco, viral media, the African diaspora, film, and performance art in venues such as Radical History Review, Criticism, The Journal of Performance Studies, Women & Performance: A Journal of Feminist Theory, Women Studies Quarterly, The Nation, and n+1. He is the co-editor of Social Text.

Plenary Session III: Keynote Speaker Martin Puchner

Saturday, November 21, 5:15 – 6:45 p.m.
Essex Ballroom

“Modernist Scribes”

Martin Puchner holds the Byron and Anita Wien Chair of Drama and of English and Comparative Literature at Harvard University, and he is the founding director of the Mellon School of Theater and Performance Research. Puchner addresses modernism, particularly the relation between literary genres and the political upheavals of the time, in Poetry of the Revolution: Marx, Manifestos, and the Avant-Gardes (2006), which won the MLA's James Russell Lowell Award and honorable mention in the MSA Book Prize. Puchner has also published Stage Fright: Modernism, Anti-theatricality and Drama (2002) and The Drama of Ideas: Platonic Provocations in Theater and Philosophy (2010). His work as an editor includes the third edition of The Norton Anthology of World Literature (2013), The Norton Anthology of Drama (2009), Modern Drama: Critical Concepts (2007), Against Theatre: Creative Destructions on the Modernist Stage (2006), Karl Marx: The Communist Manifesto and Other Writings (2005), and Six Plays by Henrik Ibsen (2003).

CULTURAL EVENTS

RECEPTION AND MSA BOOK PRIZE CEREMONY, FOLLOWED BY POEMJAZZ

Thursday, November 19, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Essex Ballroom Foyer and Ballroom

POEMJAZZ combines spoken-word poetry and live jazz into a rich and satisfying musical conversation. Robert Pinsky, the U.S. Poet Laureate from 1997-2000), and jazz pianist Laurence Hobgood have created a jazz form in which the human voice is cast in a role like that of a trumpet or saxophone. This duet of spoken poetry and music unites the melodies, rhythms, and images of poetry with the improvisational power of jazz.

MSA EXCURSION TO THE INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART'S EXHIBIT:

LEAP BEFORE YOU LOOK: BLACK MOUNTAIN COLLEGE 1933-1957

Friday, November 20, 5:15-9:00 p.m.

Buses will pick delegates up at the Westin Entrance and depart at 5:15 and 5:30. There will be one return trip at 8:30 and another at 9:00 pm. Public transportation alternatives to the ICA may be found at <http://www.icaboston.org/visit>.

Leap Before You Look: Black Mountain College 1933–1957 is the first comprehensive U.S. museum exhibition on BMC. Organized by Helen Molesworth, the ICA's former Barbara Lee Chief Curator, with ICA Assistant Curator Ruth Erickson, the exhibit features 261 objects by nearly 100 artists, including, student work, archival materials, a soundscape, a piano and dance floor for performances.

DIG AND BE DUG IN RETURN: A PARTICIPANT POETRY READING

Friday, November 20, 5:30 p.m.

Newbury

The motto for this creative uprising comes from Langston Hughes, but participants wage poetic revolution under myriad banners. Please join Stephen Burt, Elisabeth Frost, Cynthia Hogue, Julia Lisella, A.L. Nielsen, Jennifer Scappetone, Lisa Sewell, Daniel Tobin, Donald Wellman, Lesley Wheeler, and Tyrone Williams for a celebratory reading. Each poet-scholar will read briefly from her/his own work and books will be for sale.

FILM SCREENING - THROUGH A LENS DARKLY: BLACK PHOTOGRAPHERS AND THE EMERGENCE OF A PEOPLE

Friday, November 20, 7:00 p.m.

Essex

Through a Lens Darkly: Black Photographers and the Emergence of a People is a film that explores how African American communities have used one of the most important forms of technology impacting "the modern" -- the camera -- as a tool for social change. Please join us for this free screening of a film that covers the invention of photography to the present moment. The film poetically moves between the present and the past, through contemporary photographers and artists whose images and stories seek to reconcile legacies of pride and shame while giving voice to images long suppressed, forgotten, and hidden from sight.

The award-winning director of the film, Thomas Allen Harris, will be present for the screening and discussion. He will also join the roundtable Photography, Modernism, and Black Visual Culture on Saturday, 8:30-10:00 a.m.

DIGITAL EXHIBITS SHOWCASE

Friday, November 20, 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Staffordshire Foyer

The Digital Exhibits Showcase features a range of research tools, mapping and visualization tools, bibliographies or databases, corpora of media or texts, digitization initiatives, and interactive interfaces, all related in some way to modernist studies. Presenters will provide demonstrations of their projects, explain project design, talk about tools/software used, and discuss challenges they faced or questions they wish to address in future iterations of their projects. We have made a particular effort to showcase projects that advance the field of modernist studies in unique ways. The showcase will be held between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Friday, November 20. It will span two panel sessions and a break so that conference attendees have ample opportunity to visit and learn from participants in this event.

RECEPTION FOLLOWED BY FINNEGANS WAKE READING

Saturday, November 21, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Essex Foyer and Ballroom

Mary Manning's Passages from Finnegans Wake: A Free Adaptation for the Theatre is a theatrical adaptation of James Joyce's novel first performed in 1955 by the Poets' Theater, Cambridge. The Here Comes Everybody Players will present a staged reading of Manning's rarely performed play that captures Joyce's dreamlike narrative and playful language to tell the stories of Humphrey Chimpden Earwicker (HCE), Anna Livia Plurabelle (ALP), and their children Shem, Shaun and Issy.

The Here Comes Everybody Players, whose name is based on HCE from Finnegans Wake, is a Boston-based theater group focusing primarily on dramatizations of the work of James Joyce. They have performed for audiences at Dublin's James Joyce Centre and in various Boston-area venues. The group's repertoire includes adaptations from virtually all of Joyce's work, including Ulysses, Finnegans Wake, A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, Stephen Hero, and Dubliners. www.hce-players.org.
